THRIFT IS BRIMHALL'S
MONDAY SPEECH THEME

"Save or Slave" was the text of the four minute talk of President Emeritus Brimhall in devotional Monday. With his usual forcefulness the speaker claimed this to be the theme of the unwritten thesis of his life, inspired by the sign on a bank window.

throughout his life convince him that a man must either save, save, save, or slave, slave, slave.

"What Was Witnessed in the Heavens" the favored hymn written by Evan Stephens, was beautifully rendered by the mixed chorus.

"CUPID'S FROLIC IS
O. S. T. PARTY THEME

"Cupid's Frolic" was the theme of the formal dancing party given by the O. S. T. at the Elks home. The reception hall was draped with the colors of this city. From a huge red heart, placed by the dearest son of Cupid, was served heart and a very warm heart best of dainty candies.

In the dancing room, soft lamps, ferns and an array of pillows helped to enliven the guests. During the intermission, Card appeared in person and charmed the audience with two clever dances. Miss Jane Newell portrayed the part of the mischievous little sprite.

Professors and Mrs. A. Rex Johnson and Mrs. Elsie C. Carroll were the patrons of the delightful affair.

In the evening line were Miss Nell Hibbard, Miss Anne Hughes, Miss Phyllis Adams, Miss Elizabeth Gensert, and Richard Knight, Stewart Anderson, James Paulson, and Will Dell Taylor.

Cupid's challenge proved thrilling to fifty couples who attended the function.

The Screen Cow Boy

I saw him shoot and shoot to kill and rode the redskin band. His horsemanship, his superb skill. With a six-gun in each hand.

I saw him, with such grace. His hand was steady, swift and sure. In Hollywood he ran a stand As a ladies' man.

who have the knack and the stuff. The first term of summer school will begin on June 9, and continue until July 15. This term will be conducted at the University while the second term from July 21 to August 23 will as usual be held at Alpha. No institution in the West is more distinctive than the Alpine Summer School. It is not only unique in conception, but its educational results most significant. The Alpine term of six weeks makes it possible for the Y student to secure a full quarter's work during the summer.

Dr. O. K. Hansen
Called By Death

Dr. O. K. Hansen, 95, for three successive terms the Mayor of Provo, died at his home Saturday evening, after a prolonged illness following operations for intestinal trouble.

Born September 28, 1874, at Painesville, Ohio, he entered the University in 1892 and left in 1895 to engage in missionary work and later to study dentistry.

In addition to three highly successful terms as Mayor of Provo, Dr. Hansen is probably best known as a lover and collector of art. Anything in artistic nature—music, drama, painting, or sculpture—claimed the earnest support and cooperation of Hansen and he has for years been the owner of one of the finest oil painting collections in the state, and has always been vigorous in his support of local art exhibits and the Springfield High School.

Besides his mother, two sisters, and five brothers, Dr. Hansen is survived by his wife, Helena Anderson Hansen, 78, Dr. O. DeVore Hansen, 75, Ruth, 28, Margaret, 28, Caroline, 28, and "Gertie," 28, all of whom are residents of Brigham Young university.

His affiliation with the Utah Woolen Mills, as his Cashie Valley experiences are now to bring added benefit to him.

"Hey, Bill," the electrician called to his helper, "grab hold of one of those wires."

"All right," said Bill. "I got one."

"Feel anything?"

"None."

"Good! I wasn't sure which was which. Don't touch the other one!"

What Mining Means to Utah

Y.

$3,000.00 in scholarships and awards are being offered by the mining industry of Utah, in cooperation with the University of Utah, and the Mining Committee of the Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce, for the winning papers written by high school and college students, on this subject.

Y.

Briefly outlined, the plan so far as it relates to college students and the distribution of awards, is as follows:

Y.

First—Freshmen at the University of Utah, Utah State Agricultural College, Brigham Young University, Westminster College, or any junior college of recognized collegiate standing, may compete and writers of the two best papers, in all of the United States, on the subject "What Mining Has Meant to the Economic Development of the West," will each receive a prize of $100.00.

Y.

Second—The two best papers submitted by members of the Sophomore class of the above institutions, on the subject "What Mining Has Meant to the Economic Development of the United States or a Nation," will each receive a cash prize of $200.00.

Y.

Third—Two Juniors at the University of Utah, two at Brigham Young University, and two at the Utah State Agricultural College will be awarded $300.00 each for the best papers in each school on the subject, "The Influence of Mining on the Development and Stability of Nations."

Y.

Fourth—One Senior at the University of Utah, one at Brigham Young University, and one at the Utah State Agricultural College will receive an award of $400.00 for the best paper at each institution, on the subject "Means Whereby Industries can be Established to Utilize the Products of Mines and Farms and to Employ the Surplus Labor of the State."

Y.

Further information concerning these scholarships may be obtained from the President's office or by writing to the Secretary, Mining Committee, Chamber of Commerce, Salt Lake City.
